TWO SUMMER ORIENTATION, REGISTRATION
PROGRAMS SET AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana will hold two two-day "Summer Orientation and Registration Programs" for freshmen and transfer students July 12-13 and Aug. 9-10 on the Missoula campus.

Helen McDuffie, director of orientation at UM, said the two programs for students also will include an introduction to the campus and academic programs for those parents who accompany students to Missoula.

Fee for the student programs will be $7 each, plus $2.75 per night for those who stay in Aber Hall, a University high rise dormitory. Parents' fee also will be $2.75 per night for those who wish to stay in Aber Hall, but parents will not pay for participating in the orientation program, in order to minimize costs for each family.

"Individual academic advising will be provided for each student participating in either of the two summer programs," said Donna Booth, coordinator of academic advising at UM.

Booth said the student portions of the two programs "are only for those freshmen and transfer students who have been accepted for admission to the University."

"Those who have not been accepted for admission should contact the UM Office of Admissions, room 222 of the University Lodge, as soon as possible to have their acceptances for admission confirmed by the office," Booth explained.
